

What data is sent where?

10 - "I am in range, are you (still)?"

11 - "I am in range and you said you're in range, right?"

* If two phones are on the same WiFi network, do we need to check range?

What user data could be stored in Firebase?

Login information

- username
- Encrypted password

} Not necessary unless there's a reason why people need to log in.

How do we ensure that two sets of devices are running the same software?

What are the risks if we don't?

- Different JSON database?
- Different chance of matching?